RE: Voter Fraud

Dear [REDACTED]:

I am in receipt of a report from the Asotin County Sheriff's Office wherein it is alleged that you violated the State's election law (illegal voting).

Washington law states:

Any person who intentionally votes or attempts to vote in this state more than once at any election, or who intentionally votes or attempts to vote in both this state and another state at any election, is guilty of a class C felony. RCW 29A.84.650(1).

I have reviewed the report and I am convinced that you had no intention of casting more than one ballot or otherwise defrauding the election process. As such, I am declining to file charges in this matter at this time. Perhaps an inevitable consequence of conducting elections by mail-in ballot is the likelihood of misunderstandings and erroneously voted ballots. In the future, should irregularities occur with regard to your ballot or questions arise, you should immediately contact the auditor and straighten out any such issues before completing and mailing your ballot. Thank you for your time and attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

CURT L. LIEDKIE
Prosecuting Attorney
